Quartet Vietnamese Shorts to IDSFFK

12th IDSFFK draws the film lovers in to the curated package of film critic Philip Cheah 'Doi Moi & Beyond – Vietnamese Shorts' which is to be screened on Wednesday (26.06.19) 09:45AM at Nila Theatre. 'Dedicated to Grandpa Dieu', 'At Water's Edge', 'Ephimera', and 'Sofa, Kitchen and Chitchats' are the films in the quartet package.

Do Van Hoang directorial 'At Water's Edge' is the story of a group of men and a lonely young woman struggling to survive in a big city while 'Sofa, Kitchen and Chitchats' directed by Do Ha Thu discusses the story of a group of single middle-aged ladies living in the suburb of Hanoi.

Nguyen Hien Anh directed 'Dedicated to Grandpa Dieu' narrates the life of a hardworking grandpa and fidelicious in his translation works but never got any of his works published and 'Ephimera' directed by Ho Thanh Thao portrays the story of a young lady who falls for a man whom she disgusted at first and the reason behind it.

The films conversing about comradeship, tradition, religion, migration, sexuality and violence will be screened today at Nila Theatre from 09:45 AM.
