Break the Magic of Testimony: Madhusree Dutta

“I wish and try to break the magic of testimony in my works. Documentary is a dichotomy between popular culture and public culture, and religion stays in the middle of them”, shared Madhusree Dutta her ideas during the ‘In Conversation’ with Bina Paul, Artistic Director of IDSFFK.

“Documentaries are born out of dreams and desires and thus the topics addressed should evolve changes and relevance in the course of time. I like to invite my audience into imagination through fiction works. I work using evidence, but evidence alone can’t contribute and convey everything we want today”, added Madhusree Dutta.

She also shared about her new project to launch Bombay Cinema City during the session. She will be honoured with the Life Time Achievement Award along with Rupees two lakh and a memento at the valedictory function today (26.06.19).
